

Compliance testing by wireless carriers for accuracy should be done, at a minimum, at the county (parish) level and not on a state or national level.